Mrs. Astor Making an Outdoor Baby of Little John Jacob 3rd

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Mrs. John Jacob Astor has found the beautiful outdoor life at her country place near Bearsville, N. Y., so beneficial and enjoyable that she has decided to prolong her stay for another fortnight at least, and will not return her famous town house at No. 840 Fifth avenue before November.

Baby John Jacob Astor, now two months old, is declared to be growing so fast that his delighted grandparents declare they

MISS MORELAND, WHOSE HUSBAND IS SUING NAT GOODWIN

NIAT GOODWIN IN ALIENATION SUIT

BALTIMORE, Oct. 17.—One more chapter has been added to the story concerning Miss Marjorie Moreland, the Baltimore actress who before she went on the stage was married to Nat Goodwin, the actor who has been at various times reported to be considering a fifth alliance with Miss Moreland as the better half.

According to a dispatch received from San Diego, Cal., Goodwin has been made the defendant in a $25,000 suit, filed against him there on the charge of alienating the affections of Miss Moreland from her present husband, Charles Doughty, a real estate operator.

Miss Moreland and Mr. Doughty were married about eight years ago, after which she went on the stage, and became Miss Marjorie Moreland, and later the Goodwin's leading woman, and the co-actress in matrimonial union.

In the stage world, marriage was unknown and in denying the reports that she introduced to Nat Goodwin, she never referred to this insupportable condition, she merely said "Someone," or something like that.

Miss Marjorie Moreland was at the home of Nat Goodwin at Santa Monica, Calif., when the news of the filing of the alienation suit was brought to her. She was greatly agitated by the announcement, Mr. Goodwin said he knew nothing about the suit and declared the idea was preposterous.

Two years ago I found it necessary to leave my husband because he did not properly support me. I thought I might have some talent as an actress and I sought employment on the stage. It was necessary for me to borrow money from my mother to pay my railroad fare to come to get employment.

From that time to this I have heard nothing of my husband. He has not said any word contributed to my support. Having fully well established myself in my profession, I decided to bring suit for divorce, which I did, three or four weeks ago in my home city, Baltimore. That case will come up for hearing in a short time.

Chinese Wife Seeks American Divorce
NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—An Oriental flavor was added to the bargain day divorce in the Supreme Court by the presence of Little Lee, Chinese wife of Lee H. Soan, a restaurant proprietor.

Mrs. Lee, or Soan, just as you prefer, was the first Chinese wife to come to court and seek a regular, every day American divorce from a Chinese husband. She could stand for a first in the Chinese community. That case will come up for hearing in a short time.

NO really high-grade cigarette has ever increased in sale so rapidly as FATIMA. The reason is evident—smokers would rather have that extra quality in the tobacco than in a fancy package. In their simple, inexpensive wrapping 20 FATIMAS cost but 15 cents.

Driven to Suicide by Ridicule Girl Plunges Four Stories

SILVA RUBINOVITZ.

"I am tired of it all," Silvia Rubinovitz told her brother; "tired of living. We have no mother and father. You are the only one of my blood in the world. There is nothing ahead. All is suffering. I must die."

The decision came after an afternoon of weeping, alone in a room in the apartment house in the East Boston village, she was suddenly plunged, Silvia Rubinovitz, a dark-fair-skinned Russian girl with the big deep eyes of the dreamer, decided to take her life.

Just as dusk the girl flew off the brightly-colored sweater her aunt had bought for her a few days before, laid it carefully over a chair against the window as quietly as she could in the next room did not hear and supposed not long afterwards, her body dropped to the stone-paved courtyard four stories below. She was instantly killed.

Too Old for Her Years.

"She was too old for her years," said her brother, Leo Rubinovitz, himself only seventeen, when he told today of the girl's death. "But the child's life had been one to give her a maturity beyond her years."

She had known her father died before she was born. Her mother married again when Silvia was very young. The second husband was a man of bad character.

WOMAN SUES FOR AN ACCOUNTING

Mrs. Mary E. Beach of New York has filed a bill in the Suffolk Superior Court against Frederick Jones, secretary of the W. G. Barker Lumber Company of Boston, to have an accounting of the money which she alleges, she lent him, and to have the income from these securities paid to her, and to have the stock which she lent him sold and the proceeds paid to her. The profits were to be paid to her. Mrs. Beach also claims in her bill that Jones had agreed to allow her to fill in the accounts on check books of the company. On August 12, 1912, she drew a check for $100 on the W. G. Barker Lumber Company, but the check was dishonored. Jones obtained a bill against her then, charging that she obtained the check under false representations. Judge Pierce of the Suffolk Superior Court, however, ruled that the check was not obtained under false representations. Judge Pierce of the Suffolk Superior Court, however, ruled that the check was not obtained under false representations.

Ettor Jury at Birthday Fete Surprise Foreman Stillman

Lawrence Policemen and Boston Newspapermen Called at Seventh Day of Trial.

SALEM COURTHOUSE, Oct. 17.—The jury in the Ettor case had a birthday celebration last night. The foreman of the jury, Robert H. Stillman, a Boston policeman, was surprised by his colleagues at his birthday. His colleagues arranged for a surprise. They congratulated him by shaking him and patting him on the head. The celebration was held in the courtroom. The jury was in session for the seventh day of its trial.

FOREMAN OF ETTOR JURY.

Robert H. Stillman.

The supper was turned into a banquet. There was a pluck brook each man paid. There was singing and speeches. The first forty-eight hours has ended. The jury is in session for the seventh day of its trial. The foreman of the jury, Robert H. Stillman, a Boston policeman, was surprised by his colleagues at his birthday. His colleagues arranged for a surprise. They congratulated him by shaking him and patting him on the head. The celebration was held in the courtroom. The jury was in session for the seventh day of its trial.

Police as Witnesses. The seventh day of the trial of Ettor, Giovannielli and Caruso, who are charged with conspiracy in the murder of Anna Lo Pesi in a Lawrence strike riot, began this morning. District Attorney Atwell put on as witnesses today a court stenographer, members of the Lawrence police department and several Boston newspaper men.

When court opened at 9:30 there were not more than twenty spectators, exclusive of stenographers and newspaper reporters. The public here learned that there are plenty of available men now about the waterfront were accused. The first witness today was Patricio Michael A. Barry, who testified that he had been in the Lawrence strike riot for two years.

He was in a fight with one of the other officers, said Barry, "when the first witness today was Patricio Michael A. Barry, who testified that he had been in the Lawrence strike riot for two years. He was in a fight with one of the other officers, said Barry, "when the first witness today was Patricio Michael A. Barry, who testified that he had been in the Lawrence strike riot for two years."

James P. Gallagher was the next witness called. He told of a conversation that took place in a Lawrence drug store on January 24 between himself and Giovannielli. He testified that Giovannielli threatened violence if they could not win the strike by other means.

During his examination of Gallagher, Attorney for dynamite in the value.

DEATHS

CARPER HANDEL, one of the most prominent contractors in Western Massachusetts, died at his home in Holyoke this morning at the result of a paralytic shock. Mr. Handel was born in Altoona-Lorain about thirty years ago and came to Holyoke when nineteen years. He supervised the construction of most of the mills in Holyoke and vicinity.

HENRY AUSTIN, widely known as a writer of prose and poetry and who had held editorial positions in Boston, New York, Baltimore and New Orleans, is dead at the Massachusetts General Hospital, aged fifty-four. He was a son of Arthur W. Austin, once owner of Austin Park, where Franklin Park is now.

EDWARD CAHILL, a popular member of the Newbury Club, was killed in Holy Cross Cemetery today. He had made quite a name for himself among his associates as a singer, and took a prominent part in the affairs of the club.

PROFESSOR THOMAS PITMAN PENN, a musician of national repute, and formerly instructor of the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, is dead at Hingham, Mass. He was eighty-three years old and a veteran of the Civil and Mexican wars.

JAMES M. RINER, a member of the Boston Society of Civil Engineers, is dead at his home No. 108 Hawthorn street, Malden. His father died a month ago and he was employed by his father's company.

THADDEUS P. IRISH, for many years in the employ of the Boston Police Department, is dead at his home in Dartmouth street, South Boston. He was eighty-three years of age.

GOT IN PRISON WINE CELLAR—AND TROUBLE

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 17.—John Cox, a "trustee" at the State Prison, has been fined $1,000 for the Grand Jury by Judge W. H. S. Knowles in the Eighth District Court at Knapfield, on a charge of assault upon the influence of liquor on Attorney S. Kinsley on March 3. It is alleged Cox got into Warren McCusker's private wine cellar, and made no free with the contents he became intoxicated. He was sitting at a table watching Cox.

LYNN GIRL WEDS NEW HAMPSHIRE DOCTOR

Miss Ruth Henry Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Williams of No. 10 Lyman street, Lynn, was married to Dr. Herbert Raymond Pickering of Portsmouth, N. H., a graduate of Tufts, at the North Congregational Church. Miss Mary P. Fowler of Lynn was the maid of honor. Dr. Leslie D. May, and Mrs. Pickering will live at No. 52 Mill street, Swampscott.

VETERAN BURIED IN FLAG HE CARRIED

Wrapped in the same American flag which he himself had placed on the battlefield at Big Bethel around the body of the Quaker Volunteer who died in the Civil War, Isaac M. Holt of Quincy, member of the Grand Army of the Republic, was buried at Mt. Wollaston Cemetery.

Attorney Peters requested the defendant Giovannielli to stand up in the witness box and the policeman identified him.

"You found him as he appears now, quiet and settled, did you not?"

Gallagher denied any knowledge of the alleged conversation of the two men with Ettor during the discussion with Giovannielli in the drug store.

Neither did he recall any attempt in the value.

Higginson Asks That Children Be Kept off the Shaw Memorial

Major Henry L. Higginson, in a letter to Mayor Fitzgerald, has protested against allowing children to climb over the heads of the marching men on the Shaw memorial monument on Boston Common, and complained that the water in the mall was often occupied by drunken loafers.

Major Higginson suggests the erection of a fence to protect the memorial from injury. The Mayor instructed Superintendent Sullivan of the Public Grounds Department to take the necessary steps to protect the Shaw memorial.

In his letter Major Higginson also reminded the Mayor that some steps should be taken toward providing a thoroughfare running from the North Station to the corner of Charles and Vandewater streets in the West End, an improvement which the Mayor suggested some months ago.

Friday Arrow Sale

In a town near Boston, a narrow thoroughfare was made a "one-way" street. For the first few days carriages were arrested for entering the street at the wrong end. A thoughtful neighbor saw the reason. The sign was not read. He placed an arrow near it. There were no more arrests. Arrows speak louder than words.

There will be a chorus of them here tomorrow speaking loudly about the greatest bargains of the week. Odd lots, broken lots, etc., not bought for the occasion but remaining from the regular stocks, such as the following, with
